FATHER LAYS KILMER'S SUICIDE TO AMBITION

Former Yale Student Not Rising Rapidly Enough to Suit Him, Declares Parent.

Melancholy because he was not risng rapidly enough in the business world is the explanation offered by Samuel E. Kilner of No. 335 West

Samuel E. Kliner of No. 335 West Seventy-eighth Street, to-day for the suicide of his son, Frederick D. Kilner. The young man was found dead in his bed yesterday by his parents who had rushed down from their summer place at Rys, N. Y., when they were unable to get in telephone communication with him.

Mr. Kliner, a banker and real estate operator at No. 115 Broadway, said his son had no known love affair and was enjoying the best of health. Toung Kilner prepared as if to retire and drank carbolic acid. He was about thirty years old and was a student at Yale for a year. He was a cierk with the Franklin Trust Company, Brochlyn.

Pay One Dollar—Take Any Article

You always see the Spear Stores stepping forward with new ideas. They do not travel along sideways in a rut. They can go only one way—AHEAD. This Dollar Sale is admittedly a bold business stroke. It is made not so much to display Low Credit Terms as to SHOW you, by actions instead of words, in your own home, that you are going to be satisfied thoroughly with the price, the quality, the terms—everything about every article you buy. The Spear stores say to you, pay One Dollar, take any article. They mean just that, and if you are not thoroughly satisfied, you get your Dollar back. Is there a more straightforward, a more candid, businesslike way to offer home furnishings?
